

While seat-ed in the deep-n'ing twi-light, And my eyes had weary groyn. My thoughts then turned to heav-en, Thoughts of peace, and rest, and home;..... Then it seemed that earth had van-ished, And I woke in realms a-bove..... Where Poco rall.

an-gels hov-ered near me, God's an-gels, an-gels of love..... Ho-

Poco rall. mf

Copyrighted for all countries.

Copyright, 1900, by J. J. Murdock. All rights reserved.

PUBLISHED BY PERMISSION OF SOL BLOOM CHICAGO OWNER OF THE COPYRIGHT

MUSIC SUPPLEMENT OF HEARST'S CHICAGO AMERICAN, CHICAGO, SUNDAY, DEC. 23, 1900—PAGES 5-8

A tempo.

san .. na! Ho - san - na! Lift up your voice and sing,

A tempo.

God..... in the high - est, Peace and joy will bring.

Then

f Dim. p

as the song had ceased. And all was calm and still,

Hark! a voice so sweet and clear, Our rap - tured hearts to fill,

Rose with a song of love and joy, And a light shone round them all,

Fill - ing the air with a ra-diance bright, As God's own bless - ings fall:..... Ho-san - na! Ho - san - na! Peace and good - will to men.

A tempo.

A tempo.

Poco rall.

God . . . in the high - est, He will His bless - ings lend!

Poco rall.

Grandioso.

The heav'n - ly light round the Grandioso.

mf Poco cres.

an - gel host Bright-er and more glo - rious shone, Wak - 'ning the earth to sec - ond birth. And joy of our heav'n - ly home; Then the ho - ly cho - rus sang,

Praise to His name and love, f Glo - ry to God in the high - est, mf He who reigns af bove. Cres Glo - ry to God! cen glo - ry to God! do. Ho - san-na, let us sing! f mf Cres. Glo - ry to God in the high - est, f Glo - rious God and King!